

Are you currently taking any prescription or OTC medications?

Taking 1 OTC medication.

What was the first thing you did after being prescribed medication?

No research online before taking it, just read labels on the bottom.

How often do you take them?

Every month

Are they short or long term?

Long term

How many do you take?

1 pill

If taking single medication:

Do you research the drug before taking it?

Yes, read roughly on the label warnings

When do you do that research?

Prior to or after take the medication

If yes, how do you conduct the research (online, doctor, friends)?

Search symptoms on Google, call friends about side effects or search for people that experience the same symptoms or same medication.

What are you looking for when researching (Doses, side effects, studies, alternatives, recalls)?

Side effect

What is the most important factor to you?

Side effect

What was your experience like researching the medication?

Put the medication name and search in Google

If you research and find adverse effects / interactivity, will you still take the medication(s)?

Yes.

If you research and find adverse effects, will you still take the medication?

Yes.

Are you aware of or experience any side effects?

Yes.

Besides doctors/family, where else do you look for advice on medications?

Friends.

How do you remind yourself to take the drug?

Just memorize

Does the drug manufacturer behind the medication matter to you?

Nope

If you are on a prescription, and you have to take an OTC medication due to unforeseen circumstances, what do you do to check if it's safe?

Yes will search online

Have you helped a family member with their prescription or OTC medication?

Nope

What was your experience like?

N/A

Did you have pain points?

N/A